(a) Behavior-preserving variants
(b) Detector-visible cells
p
return x + 1
swap
p^s
return 1 + x
let
let
p^l
let y = x + 1;
return y
swap
p^sl
let y = 1 + x;
return y
left-order cell
p, p^l
message 0
right-order cell
p^s, p^sl
message 1
(c) After operand normalization
one operational cell
one fixed message
no owner-selected bit